KITCHENAID ENLARGES AND ADAPTS ITS COLOUR PALETTES IN 2012

The main objective of the Colour, Finish and Material Studio inside KitchenAid's Global Consumer Design is deepening the emotional connection between our products and our customers. To achieve its objective, the CFM Studio works to connect our customers through trend analysis and brand strategy by defining appropriate colours, finishes and materials for products. The CFM Studio always ensures appropriate implementation solutions. This results in the CFM Studio delivering innovative and desirable colour, finish and material designs specifically created for our customers' evolving needs, tastes and insights.

Wildly popular and globally positioned, the KitchenAid™ Stand Mixer is a perennial design success story. As a design icon, family heirloom or simply a very cool product, the Stand Mixer offers a pure and timeless shape and the perfect canvas for the CFM Studio to create new captivating colours and finishes.

KitchenAid and Colour Finishing and Material Studio are pleased to introduce the 2012 colour palettes. Since the KitchenAid™ Stand Mixer is a precious design product often given as a present for special occasions, this year the KitchenAid team decided to propose colour palettes inspired by traditional celebrations and global events (Christmas Time, St. Valentine's, Easter, Autumn, Halloween, Mother's and Father's day). Two new colours are being introduced in 2012: CRYSTAL BLUE and FROSTED PEARL.

The CRYSTAL BLUE is a SUMMER colour tone, used frequently both in the design and fashion fields. This Blue hue has a strong personality and it works as well as a colour accent without being too invasive.

The FROSTED PEARL is a refined white tone made precious by its metallic flakes. It evokes a mood of celebration, like Weddings. This delicate hue suggested to us creating a dedicated packaging just for it, enhancing and celebrating the unique occasion with something truly special.

SPECIAL CELEBRATIONS

Frosted Pearl

Precious, Endless

FROSTED PEARL
5KSM156FP

The KitchenAid™ brand has been waiting for some time to introduce a new white frosted pearl limited edition: excellent as a present, as a wedding gift...

The pearl, a natural sea jewel, has inspired the finishing and the name of this colour. The pearl because it is one of the most emblematic symbols in wedding celebrations. Pearls have long been considered ideal wedding gifts because they symbolize purity and innocence.

Our white special edition is a precious colour, a glossy one with a delicate stardust finish, bringing a reminder of the subdued shine of bridal dress lace, the sparkling wedding rings, even the meringue consistency of bridal cakes.

SUMMER COLOUR

CRYSTAL BLUE

Eclectic, Revolutionary, Positive

CRYSTAL BLUE
5KSM150PSCL

Crystal Blue is an exotic colour that sparkles when used as an accent. The tone is so compelling that it is able to fill any kind of surface or shape, making it immediately absorbing and eye catching.

Imagine a crystal blue KitchenAid™ Stand Mixer in a white kitchen, surrounded by juicy, summer colours, greens and pinks tones - you will instantly love it.

MIX WITH THE BEST™

Why Watts no longer work as a measure of Mixer power!

MIX WITH THE BEST USING LESS POWER

It's a common misconception that the power ratings (wattage) is a measure of the output power of a stand mixer.

However, "watts" only measures the energy used but does not represent the mixing power.

The rating in watts of a stand mixer are set by measuring the average watt consumption drawn over a certain period of time (x minutes) by the most demanding accessory of the mixer, such as the pasta accessory for our tilt-head stand mixer or the flex edge beater (in a bowl filled with sand up to 80% of the height of the beater) for the 6.9 L bowl-lift stand mixer.

Advanced technology combined with a more efficient motor and attachments means the new KitchenAid™ 6.9 L bowl-lift stand mixer uses less energy while delivering a 1.3 HP output for ultimate mixing power.
